SCUPE COURSE LISTING 2010

Winter/ Spring 2010

SCUPE M 305: Dimensions and Dynamics of Urban Ministry

Organized as a sequence of city-wide experiential learning opportunities, the course introduces students to congregations and faith-based organizations that bring good news through prophetic ministry. Students have the opportunity to engage in dialogue with urban ministry leaders who offer vision, courage and hope. Course methodology includes contextual experience, theological reflection, social analysis and dialogue with significant church leaders and the instructor.

Credit: 3 semester hours

Faculty: Dr. Yvonne Delk

Course Schedule: Jan 4-8, 11-15 (9am-5pm)

SCUPE B-Th 302: Urban Principalities and the Spirit of the City

Drawing from the ground-breaking theological work on the biblical language of “principalities and powers”, this course examines the spiritual realities foundational to understanding and transforming the social, economic and political structures of our urban world.

Credit: 3 semester hours

Faculty: Dr. Bill Wylie-Kellermann

Course Schedule: Feb 5-6, 12-13, 19-20 (Fridays 1-9pm; Saturdays 9am-5pm)

SCUPE S-H 304: Good News for the City

Course held in conjunction with the Congress on Urban Ministry, which features nationally recognized speakers addressing current issues of evangelism and justice within arenas of politics, economics, race, culture. Fees include event registration.

Credit: 3 semester hours

Faculty: Rev.. Bill Wylie-Kellermann

Course Schedule: March 2-5 (TBA)

SCUPE M 304: Christology and Culture

Employing a narrative hermeneutic, this course explores Christology from a global, cultural and liberation perspective – and its significance for urban ministry. The course cultivates an understanding and appreciation of the diversity of cultural images and models used to elaborate the meaning of Jesus throughout history. Through theological and historical analysis, students engage in an in-depth study of the meaning of Christ’s life-death-resurrection for his contemporaries, the early church and specifically for this present time in history.

Credit: 3 semester hours.

Faculty: Dr. Jim Perkinson

Course Schedule: March 12-13, Mar 19-20, 26-27 (Fridays 1-9pm; Saturdays 9am-5pm)

SCUPE M 306: Preaching with Prophetic Imagination

Applying the language and hermeneutic tools of the arts, exegesis of popular culture and prophetic imagination, this course provides theoretical framework and social insight necessary to effectively preach the Gospel in contemporary urban context.

Credit: 3 semester hours

Faculty: Dr. David Frenchak and Dr. Sean McMillan

Course Schedule: April 9-10, 16-17, 23-24 (Fridays 1-9pm; Saturdays 9am-5pm)

SCUPE S-H 305: Restoring Urban Communities

Field-based in one of the nation's premier Christian community development organizations, this course introduces the principles and practices of congregational-based community development. It examines the relationship between biblical faith and community development practice through site visits to exceptional Chicago development models, and identifies the leadership competencies, organizing principles, skills and resources necessary for an asset-based approach to sustainable community building.

Credit: 3 semester hours.

Faculty: Dr. Mary Nelson

Course Schedule: May 7-8, 14-15, 21-22 (Fridays 1-9pm; Saturdays 9am-5pm)

Summer 2010SCUPE M 302: Cross Cultural Ministry Intensive

The world has come to the city. Using the city as a global classroom, this two-week intensive provides students with a practical theology for ministry in a multicultural context, engages biblical study of the early church's struggle with cultural barriers, encourages respect and appreciation of world-views and value systems different from one's own, offers anti-racism training, builds skills in movement and communication across cultural divides, and exposes students directly to a wide variety of ministries in diverse cultural settings.

Credit: 3 semester hours.

Faculty: Cynthia Milsap

Course Schedule: June 7-11, 14-18 (9am-5pm)
