

Contents

Preface	vii
Erick Sawatzky
Contributors	ix
Introduction	1
Loren L. Johns
1 “That some would be pastors”	15
Ross T. Bender
2 Worldly preachers and true shepherds	24
Anabaptist anticlericalism in the Lower Rhine
Karl Koop
3 Mennonite ministry and Christian history	39
Walter Sawatzky
4 Ecclesiology, authority, and ministry	60
An Anabaptist-Mennonite perspective
Gayle Gerber Koontz
5 The pastor as teacher	74
Perry B. Yoder
6 A New Testament model for ministry and leadership	85
Jacob W. Elias
7 Ordination in the King James Version of the Bible	105
Loren L. Johns
8 The pastor as prophet	118
Ben C. Ollenburger
9 Pastors and the church’s witness in society	129
Ted Koontz
10 “For God so loved”	138
Mary H. Schertz

11	The pastor as healer Willard M. Swartley	149
12	The pastor as spiritual orienteer A pastoral theology approach Arthur Paul Boers	162
13	Paying attention The minister as listener June Alliman Yoder	176
14	Pastoral ministry as improvisatory art Rebecca Slough	186
15	The pastor as caregiving sage Daniel S. Schipani	198
16	Power and authority Helping the church face problems and adapt to change J. Nelson Kraybill	213
17	What is at the heart of pastoral ministry? Erick Sawatzky	228
	Introduction to appendixes	238
	Appendix 1 Ministerial formation and theological education in Mennonite perspective	239
	Appendix 2 Theological education and curricular design at AMBS	257
	Index of Scripture references	263
	Subject index	266